The Christian God is deeply and passionately concerned with justice – it's his very nature and it's evident throughout the Bible. God created a good world; a flourishing garden, in which there was no evil and humans and all living creatures could thrive and prosper. But evil did enter, humankind faltered, and there began God's great fight – to win back our hearts and inspire us to join with him in administering justice and bringing the fullness of life to creation.

The NIV God's Justice Bible explores this key character trait of God and important area of Christian life. Alongside the NIV Bible text, a global cast of scholars and justice fighters contribute study notes, book introductions, questions for reflection and prayers to inform, challenge and inspire.

NIV God's Justice Bible is designed to fire readers' passion for social justice and take positive steps to bring justice issues to light in their own circles of influence – all for the glory of God.

Kids philosophy

We are passionate...

- About developing quality, affordable children's material.
- Our definition of quality refers not only to the physical product, but also its content.
- Our products are developed from a non-dementional Christian vantage point.
- We believe that a sound spiritual foundation is the best way to build an emotionally healthy child.

Understanding each phase

Our products, Bibles and books help each phase of a developing child.

0-18 months

In the bonding phase (0-18 months) it is important for the baby to connect with his/her parent(s). This phase can be summed up as follows: I am ... because I am looked after. The outcome of this phase is trust versus mistrust. Trust is developed as a result of the loving connection between child and parent(s) - I can trust other people. During this phase the focus is on emotional as opposed to cognitive responses.

18 m - 3 years

The exploring phase (18 months - 3 years) is summed up by I am ... what I can do. The outcome of this phase is autonomy versus shame or doubt. Through the loving interaction with the parent(s) the child learns I can.

4-6 years

Children in this phase of development can be summed up in two sentences: I am ... what I can imagine and I am ... what I can achieve. Based on a greater independence and emotional perception of I am (their identity), the toddler begins to explore their world. The result of this phase is a sense of purpose. This is the first phase of real learning as children eagerly try to figure out how the world works. Our products help children "to climb inside" the Bible and other stories. Within the parameters of their understanding and emotional levels they are able to become part of, and play within the story. In this way the Bible as well as Bible stories become part of the lived and the world they live in.

7-12 years

Children in this phase of development can be summed up in the sentence: I am ... how I relate to another person. By this time children have developed their own identity with regards to how they relate to their parent(s) and to the rest of the family.

The next step is discovering how they relate to other people socially. The opinions of their peer group and friends are very important to them. During this phase the child learns to waste the formal aspects of life.

Our products help children to better embrace this stage with diligence and enthusiasm. They learn that in God they are capable, because they are created in His image.

13+ years

Children in this phase of development can be summed up in the sentence: I am ... who I am now discovering.

The three questions children in this developmental stage need to find answers to are:

- Who am I?
(Reassurance regarding who they are)
- To which group do I belong?
(Reassurance regarding their social identity)
- What do I want to accomplish?
(Reassurance regarding values and ideals)

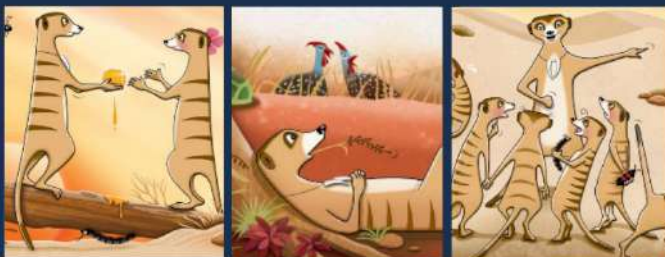

Our products for children in this phase helps them find meaningful answers to these questions.

We connect it all ...

At CMP we strive to aid children during each of their important phases.

Christian Media Publishing takes the command of Jesus, "let the children come to me" (Mark 10:14), seriously. With each publication we want to point children in the right directions. Our goal is simple ... Proverbs 22 vs 6: "Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old they will not turn from it." That is why every book are linked and serves as stepping stones for a child's spiritual growth.

Skattejag-Bybel
ISBN 9781920592684

Ewald van Rensburg, Hoofmedewerker

CMP ontwikkel Bybels om te voldoen aan die behoeftes van die individu vir elke ouderdom en stadium in hul lewe – vanaf een tot eenhonderd. Die Skattejag-Bybel, vir ouderdomme 7 tot 12, is nog 'n stap in hierdie proses.

Die Skattejag-Bybel verskaf 'n brug wat kinders van Bybelverhaalboeke neem tot interaksie met die volledige teks van die Bybel.

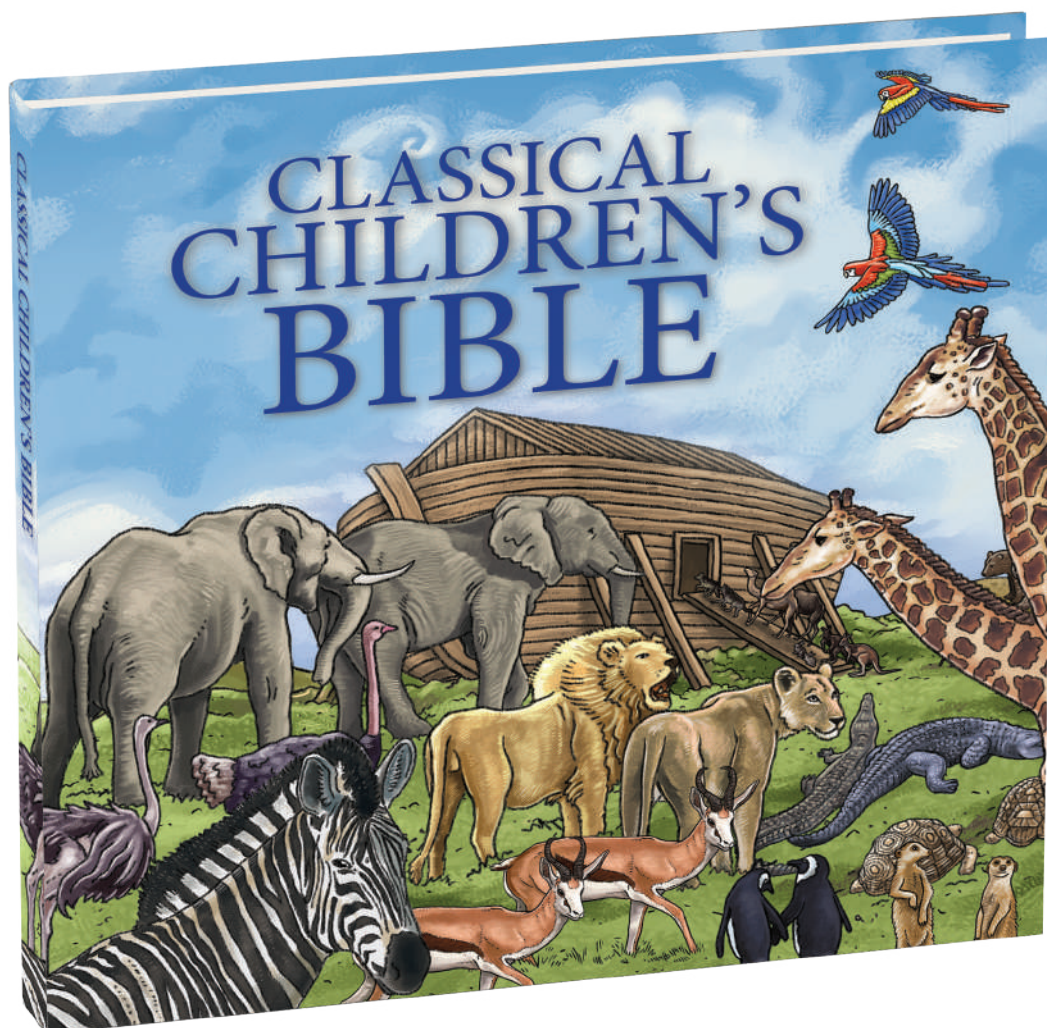

Bevorder interaksie met die Skrif volgens die kind se unieke leer- en vergelykende style. Dit word gedoen deur middel van Jagtogte wat gelei word deur diere wat Die Weggies genoem word. Hierdie dierbare diere lei die kind op 'n opwindende avontuur vanaf Genesis tot Openbaring. Die Weggies moedig die kind aan om die skatte in die hele Bybel te soek en te vind. Hierdie benadering leer die kind dat daar nie 'n "een-skoen-pas-almal"-benadering is tot hoe ons met God en Sy Woord kommunikeer nie.

Jesus is the good shepherd

127

Jesus liked to tell stories.

One day he told a story about a sheep that got lost.

Jesus said, "Shepherds have to take good care of their sheep. What happens when a shepherd has 100 sheep and finds out that one of them isn't with the others? The shepherd leaves the 99 sheep in a safe place and goes to look for his lost sheep. He doesn't stop looking until he finds the sheep. It doesn't matter how far the shepherd must go. He will continue to search for his sheep even after the sun goes down and it becomes dark.

When the shepherd finds his sheep, he is very happy! He lifts the sheep up and carries it home on his shoulders.

Then he goes to all his friends and neighbours and tells them, 'Let's all be glad! My sheep was lost, but I found it and brought it home!'"

On another occasion, Jesus talked about shepherds who didn't care about their sheep. When a wild animal attacks the sheep, these bad shepherds run away. They leave the sheep to look after themselves.

"I am not like that," Jesus said.

"I am like a good shepherd. A good shepherd knows his sheep's names. When he calls their names, they follow him. They know that he will take them to good grazing and water. The sheep know he will protect them against thieves and wild animals. A good shepherd gives his sheep a very good life.

A good shepherd will never leave his sheep. He will die for his sheep. This is what I will do. I am the good shepherd, and I have sheep all over the world. They all listen to my voice. I love them all. And I will die for them all."

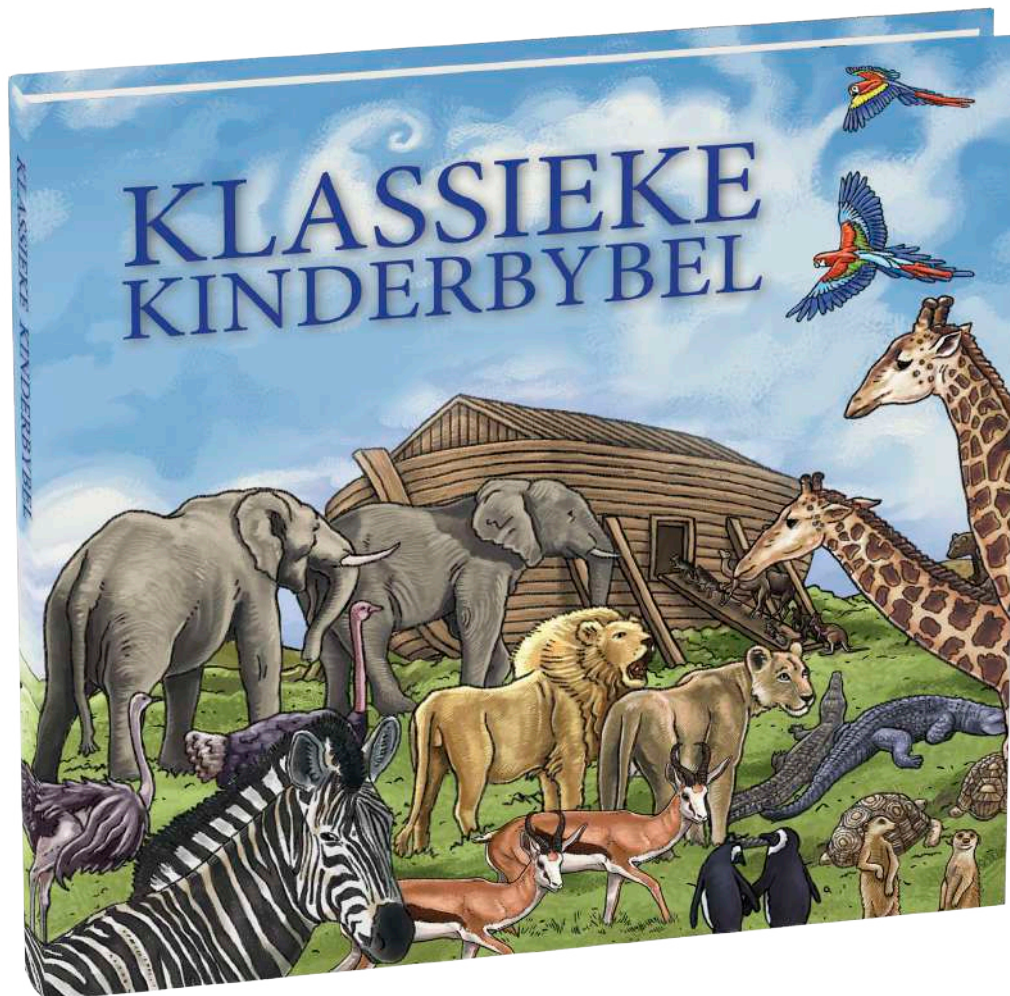

Some of the people didn't understand what Jesus was saying. They didn't realise he was telling them that he was the Saviour, and that he was going to die on the cross. He would do this so that his followers could become friends with God again and be with him forever.

Noag en die groot vloed

Die aarde het stadig aan mense geraak. En bietjie vir bietjie het hulle opgehou om aan God gehoorsaam te wees. Hulle het verkeerde en slegte dinge gedoen. Dit het God baie hartseer gemaak. Hy sê toe: "Ek gaan weer voor begin. Ek gaan al die mense behalwe Noag en sy familie laat sterf."

Noag het naby aan God geleef. Hy was getrou aan God, en het Hom gedien. Noag het drie seuns gehad: Sem, Gam en Jafet.

God het vir Noag gesê: "Ek gaan 'n einde aan alles maak, maar Ek gaan jou en jou vrou se lewens en ook jou seuns en skoondogters se lewens spaar. Jy moet 'n ark van goferhout bou. Dit moet baie kamers hê. Bedek dit met teer aan die binnekant en die buitekant. Ek wil ook die diere en voëls spaar; daarom moet jy hulle saam met jou in die ark neem."

Noag het aan die ark begin werk. Hy het alles gedoen wat God beveel het. Die ark was baie groot. Dit het drie verdiepings gehad. Daar was 'n dak en 'n deur aan die een kant van die ark. Noag het ook kos vir sy gesin en vir al die diere in die ark ingelaai.

Toe die ark klaar was, sê God: "Gaan met jou hele familie in die ark in. Neem sewe pare van elke soort rein dier saam met julle. Neem een paar van elke soort onrein dier saam. Neem ook sewe pare van elke soort voël saam. Na die vloed kan die diere en voëls oor die aarde versprei en dit weer vol maak."

In daardie dae is mense net toegelaat om sekere soort diere aan God te offer. Hulle is "rein" diere genoem. Al die ander diere was "onrein".

Toe sê God: "Sewe dae van nou af gaan Ek reën stuur. Dit sal 40 dae en 40 nagte lank reën."

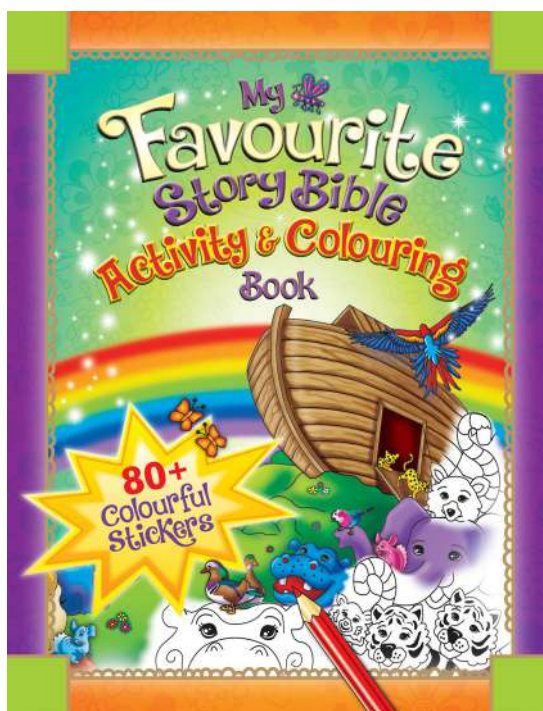

Noag en sy familie het in die ark gegaan. Die diere en die voëls het almal ingegaan. En toe almal binnekant was, het God die deur van die ark gesluit. 'n Week later het dit begin reën. Die reën het sonder ophou vir 40 dae lank neergestort.

Die riviere het oorstroom. Die water was oral, en die ark het begin dryf. Die water het nog hoër gestyg, en later kon 'n mens nie meer die huise en bome sien nie. Uiteindelik was alles onder water, selfs die bergtoppe. Al die mense en diere het verdrink.

Net Noag, sy familie en die diere wat God vir hom gestuur het, was veilig. Die Here het hulle veilig binne-in die ark gehou.
